SESSION A 12:45-1:45 p.m.	Designer Drug Culture Presented by Officer Jermaine Galloway This session will cover designer drugs such as ecstasy, designer analogues, and other synthetic drugs. Also, covered will be drug clothing associated with the designer drug culture, events, terms and logos.	Finding Room for Spirituality Presented by Chaplain Dan Thompson, M.A. The evolving professional standard care for substance use disorder/addiction treatment recognizes spirituality not as a treatment addendum, but as a core feature that collaborates with the physical-intellectual and emotional treatment plan. Learn to incorporate spirituality into your client services.	Social Connections: A Prevention Factor Presented by Christine Carpenter, M.S.W., L.M.S.W., A.C.S.W. and Joelle Drader Wilcox, M.D., L.P.C. Local school-based therapists will present information, insights and challenges to helping your children/students develop strong social connections across the developmental lifespan from childhood to adolescence.	Consent is Everything: Substance Use and Sexual Consent Among Youth Presented by Angie Linsenman, L.L.M.S.W. Develop a foundation for supporting sexual abuse survivors by exploring the intersection of substance use and sexual violence among adolescents. Presentation includes information on Michigan consent and substance laws, and how substance use affects disclosure and reporting of sexual assault.
SESSION B 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.	The Anishinaabe Presented by Anthony Davis, Sr. Learn about Anishinaabe spirituality and values, including the Seven Grandfather Teachings, and how to apply them in your life. Increase your ability to help youth identify and understand their parents' and mentors' roles in their lives.	Stop the Silence; Speak the Truth Presented by Robin Sommer Love the addict, hate the addiction. A grieving mom shares the personal story of her son's addiction and fatal heroin/fentanyl overdose, and the difficult life lessons she learned.	Marihuana Laws Presented by John Kroneck, MA, LPC, CPC-R A review of the Public Health Concerns of the 2018 Ballot Proposal to legalize marijuana. The Resolution being used by organizations throughout the state will be shared with the participants.	Risk Assessment and Identification of Child Trafficking Victims Presented by Kim Van Hooser, M.S.W. Attendees will learn how to identify the recruitment process, warning signs and pathways of sexually exploited or trafficked children. Presentation will include discussion of trafficking case studies and information on victim services.
